Coaches Corner: A huge shoutout to all on the great success of our Capital Campaign – reaching well over our goal of 20k, that will be used for enhancement for the team.

To Sharks parents, swimmers, staff & others scared of trying new things (believe that would be all of us):

We all have times of uncertainty about trying new tasks, or looking bad, not having great success but with our youngsters I feel it's important that they realize/know they can learn a great deal more than they believe or we realize. As parents/mentors it's our role to model or help them see this. So, this story/example can be in another form/topic. Let's not keep our children/ourselves like zoo tigers all the time. As we know failure can be good.

Capital Sponsorship Campaign – Sharks Sponsorship Campaign update - CONGRATS!!!! Sharks didn't just meet the goal, you SMASHED IT!!! We raised pledges of $27,070!! We are finalizing all the forms, logos, and thank you letters with our Tax ID, so please allow a couple of weeks for those letters to make it to your sponsors. Also, we are gathering plans for a celebratory lunch for all those swimmers who obtained sponsors (regardless of dollar amount raised). Please reach out to Bethanie LeBlanc if you have any questions. GREAT JOB!

Sharks Masters – Sharks Masters Program has resumed! We have multiple practice options available – more details can be found HERE.

SSAN Meet Job Signup – Host is only requiring one timer per lane. Timers for Friday should stay through the end of the meet – and continue to time through the 500 free. Job signup will open at 7pm this evening.

Developmental Meet Job Signup – We are in need of six lane timers and some ready area personnel to assist with lining up swimmers. Timers must have the swimmingly app downloaded to their device to time. Signup will open at 7pm this evening. This meet is being hosted at FHS, so this is an opportunity to obtain service hours even if your swimmer is not in the meet.
